PRAYER RESOURCES

THE GROVE

Valley of Vision (Arthur Bennett) - 223 pages

A collection of Puritan prayers and devotions, not to "supply" prayers but to stir your mind with deep and rich thoughts of God and needs for your soul.

Do You Pray (J. C. Ryle) - 67 pages

Concise and forcefully expressive, Ryle challenges every person, whether a seasoned prayer warrior or a novice to a life devoted to prayer.

Only a Prayer Meeting (C. H. Spurgeon) – 256 pages

A collection of the Spurgeon's messages from the prayer meeting of his church. Each message is brief, but filled with helpful thoughts on prayer.

Praying the Bible (Donald S. Whitley) - 96 pages

Whitney provides a short and very practical guide to praying the Scriptures. It will be immediately valuable to you.

The Bruised Reed (Richard Sibbes) - 143 pages

If your heart struggles to see the grace and kindness of the Lord, this book is for you. You will find yourself drawn to the love of the Savior.

Handbook of Praying Scripture (William Varner) – 185 pages

A 31-day guide for praying through the Scriptures. Varner provides a schedule that is easy for the person who is new in faith and challenging to the mature.

Knowing God (J. I. Packer) - 278 pages

Prayer is not an end in itself but is fellowship or abiding with the God of the Universe. Packer leads you into wonderful thoughts of God's character. You have been given the privilege to know God!

Delighting in the Trinity (Michael Reeves) - 128 pages

Prayer is Trinitarian; we come to the Father because of the Son in the Holy Spirit. Reeves offers meditations on this, taking deep theological truths and stirring our love for God.
